

Winter Colloquium

DATE: Wednesday, Jan. 25

TIME: 2:00-4:30 PM

PLACE: South Hall 2635

Free and Open to the Public

The American Cultures & Global Context Center's colloquia provide a space for students and faculty to hear cutting edge work from advanced graduate students. This colloquium's theme is

Ethnicity, Transnationality and Radical Politics

- 2:00-2:20 Alicia Rivera: Wysinger v. Crookshank: the case that ended school segregation of African-Americans in California
- 2:20-2:40 John Munro: "Colonial and Coloured Unity": The Manchester Pan-African Congress and the links between African American Freedom Struggle and Decolonization
- 2:50-3:10 Sarah MacLemore: Transatlantic Fenianism and the Politics of Place: Irish-American Insurgents and the London Dynamite War
- 3:10-3:30 Steven Shane: Appropriated Identity in Hanif Kureishi's The Black Album
- 3:30-4:30 Discussion and Refreshments

For more information, visit [http://acc.english.
ucsb.edu/events](http://acc.english.ucsb.edu/events)

American Cultures & Global Contexts

